London is so full of attractions, culture and excitement that there is never enough time to see everything! With two full-day London trips per week, our Classic Plus London programme enables you to maximize your time in this remarkable city.

As both a tourist and a language learner, you will have an unforgettable experience! Lessons are enjoyable and fast-paced, and are designed to build your confidence with spoken English. Topics and language points change on a weekly basis, meaning you can start and finish your course any week. Classwork also links with trips and other cultural activities on your programme.

On our fun-filled activities programme you will visit top tourist attractions and enjoy many other activities such as discos, parties, sports and creative workshops. These help you develop skills, make friends and activate your English. We look forward to giving you a fantastic summer!
